

Bachelor of Software Engineering
Centre for It Education (CITIS)
Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering
The Open University of Sri Lanka

EEI3346-Web Application Development

Mini Project

S-Number (S92078210)

S-Name (G. I. Wadugedara)

Task 02

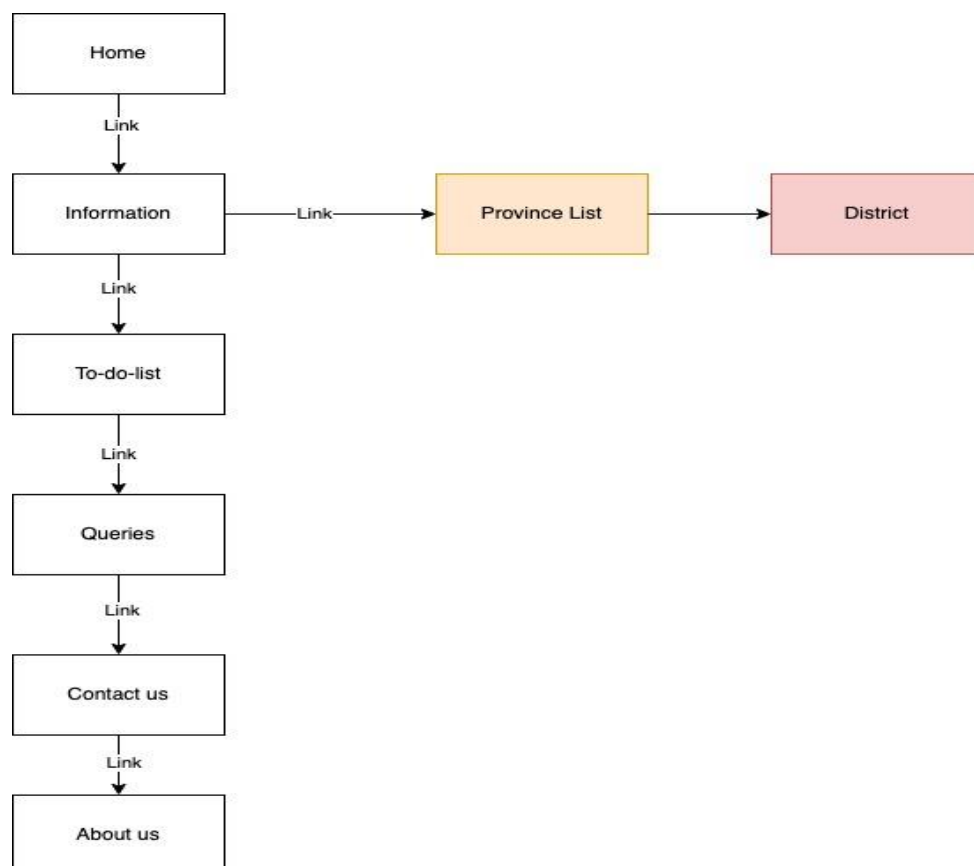

Introduction

This project was Prepared about Sri Lanka as a travel destination. This website was created give details about major tourist destinations in provinces around Sri Lanka further details are include district Wise tourist for actions and tourist attractions are also included. This also includes pictures of these Tourist places including a travel map. Further, there is also an option to get answers for any queries regarding traveling and destination Sri Lanka also we have included contact details of different branches around the country.

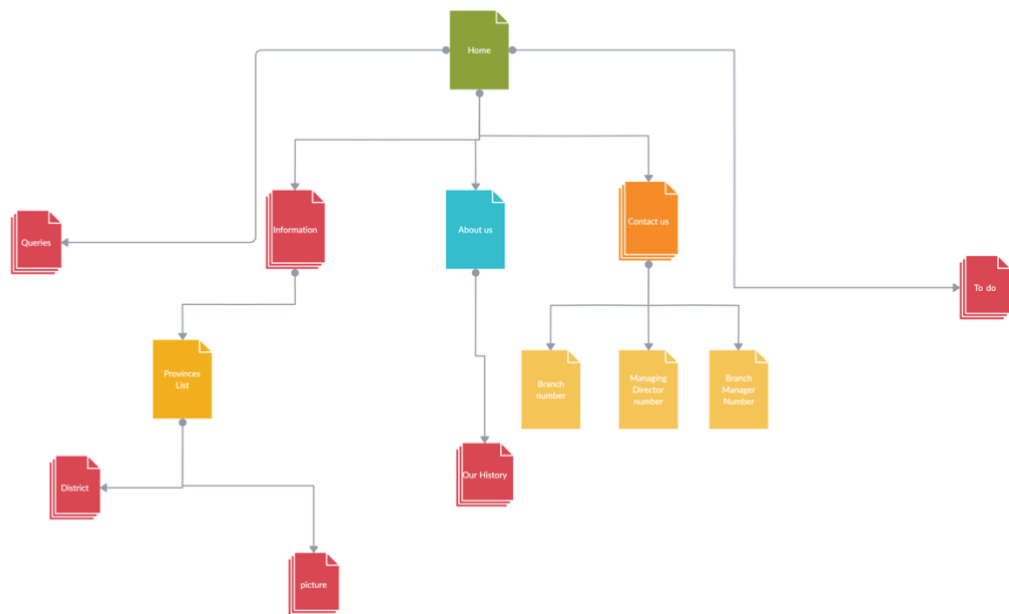

Q2) Problem –* How to prepare the to do list in the website for mini project.
*Responsive website in JavaScript Language

Solution – Follow the YouTube videos explaining about how to prepare a mini project and LMS tutorial.

Q4)

Q5)

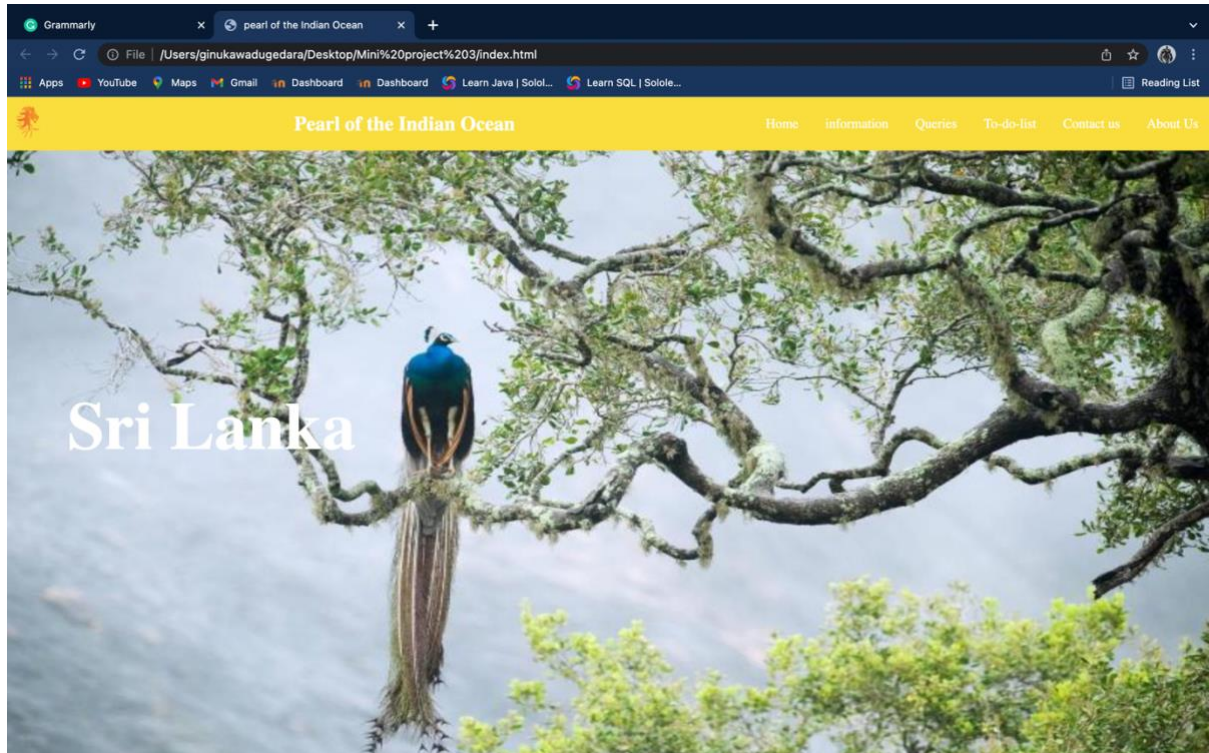

06)

Technologies and example,

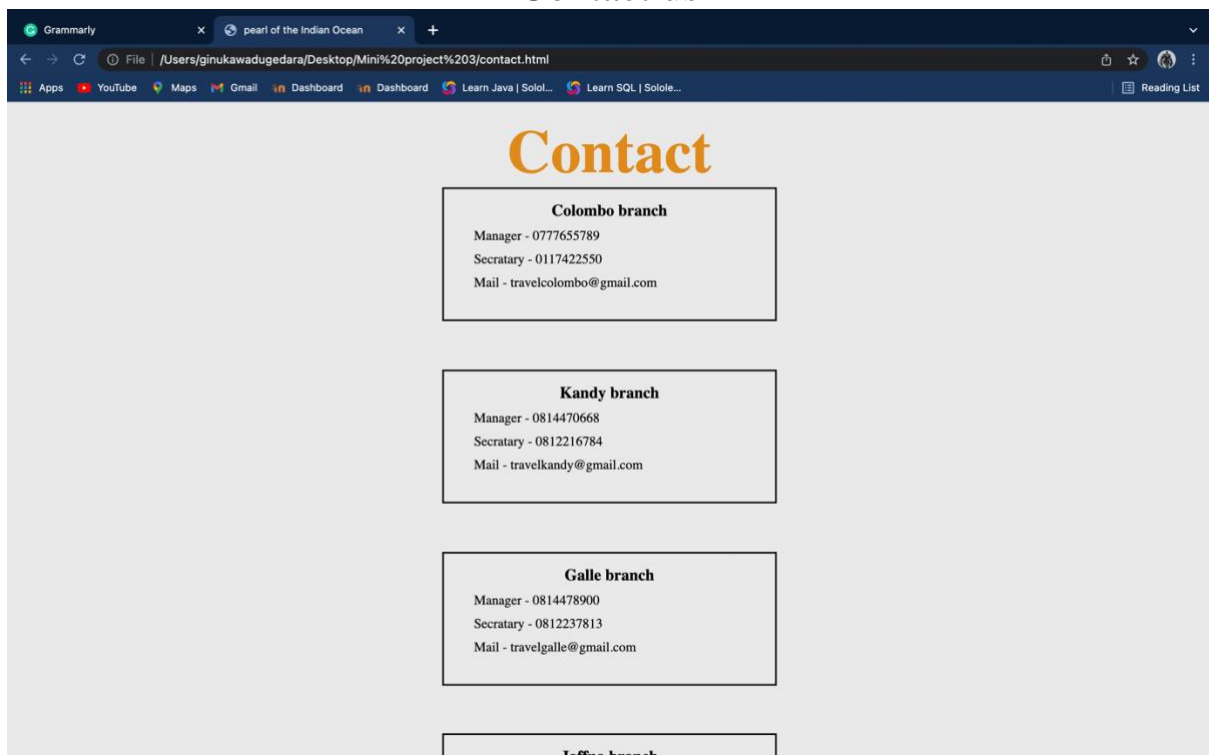

- *HTML
- *C S S
- *Java script
- *Google map
- *Font-awesome
- *Vue js

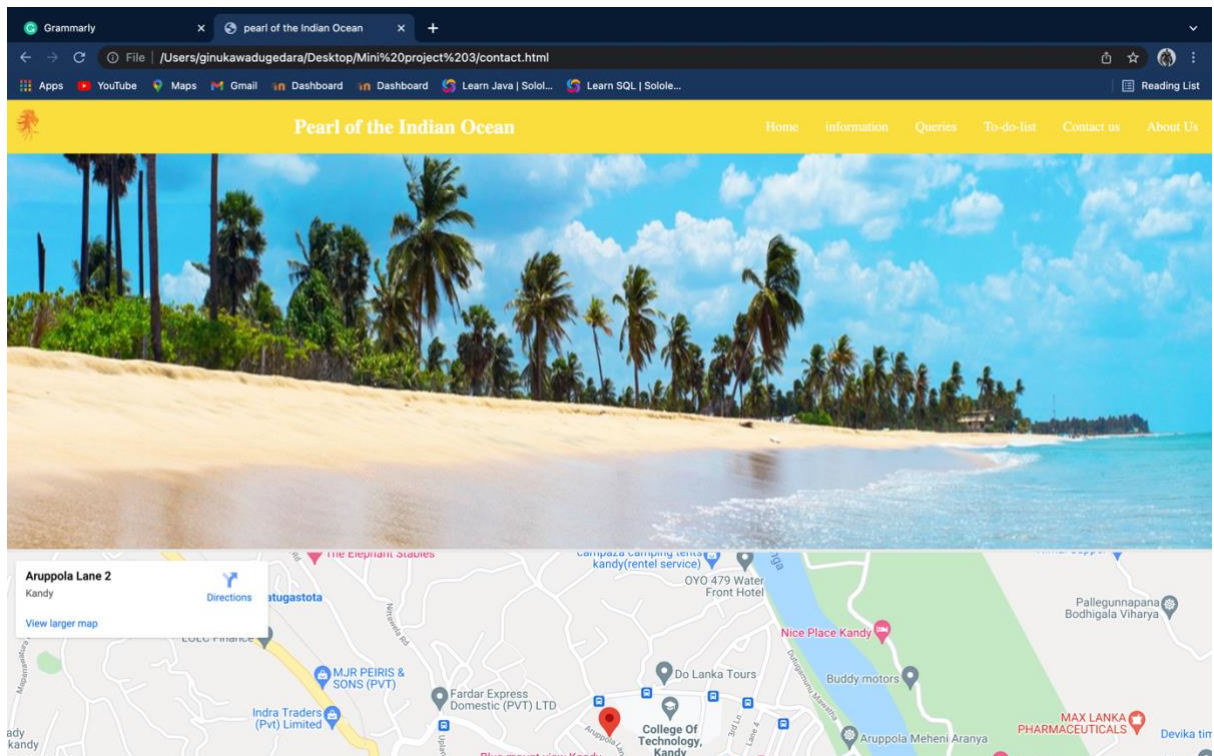

7)

Home page

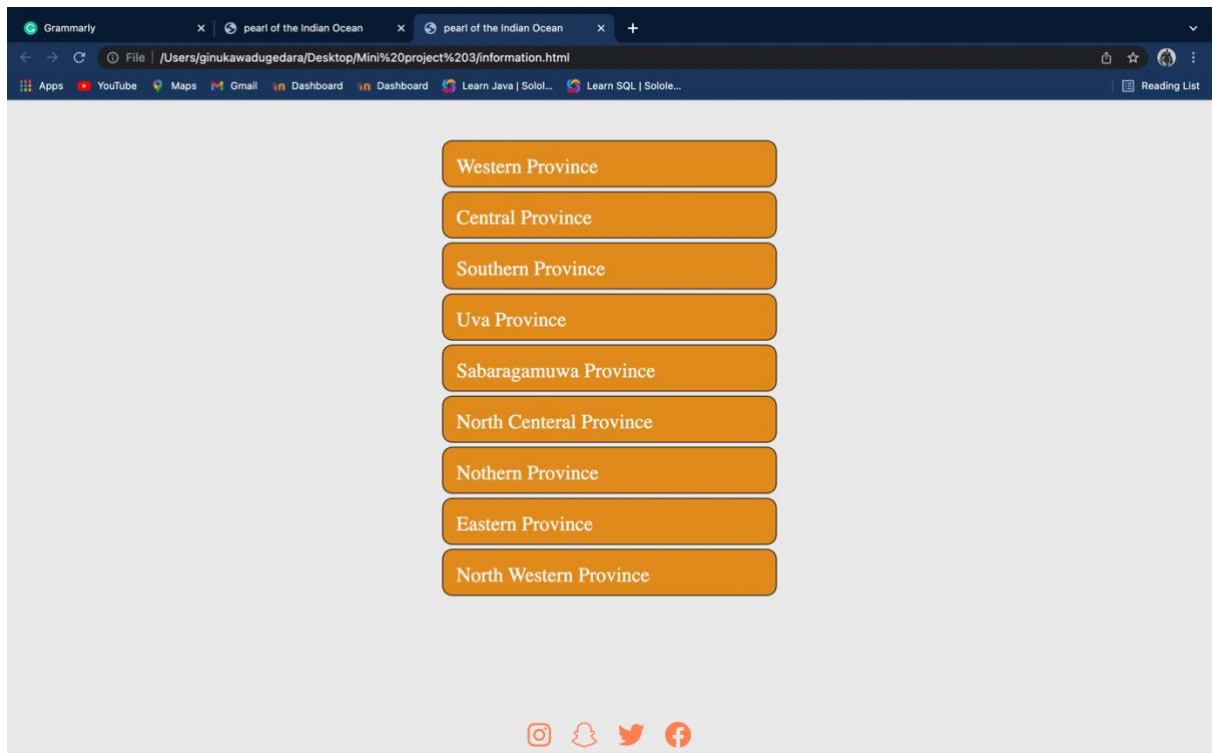

Contact us

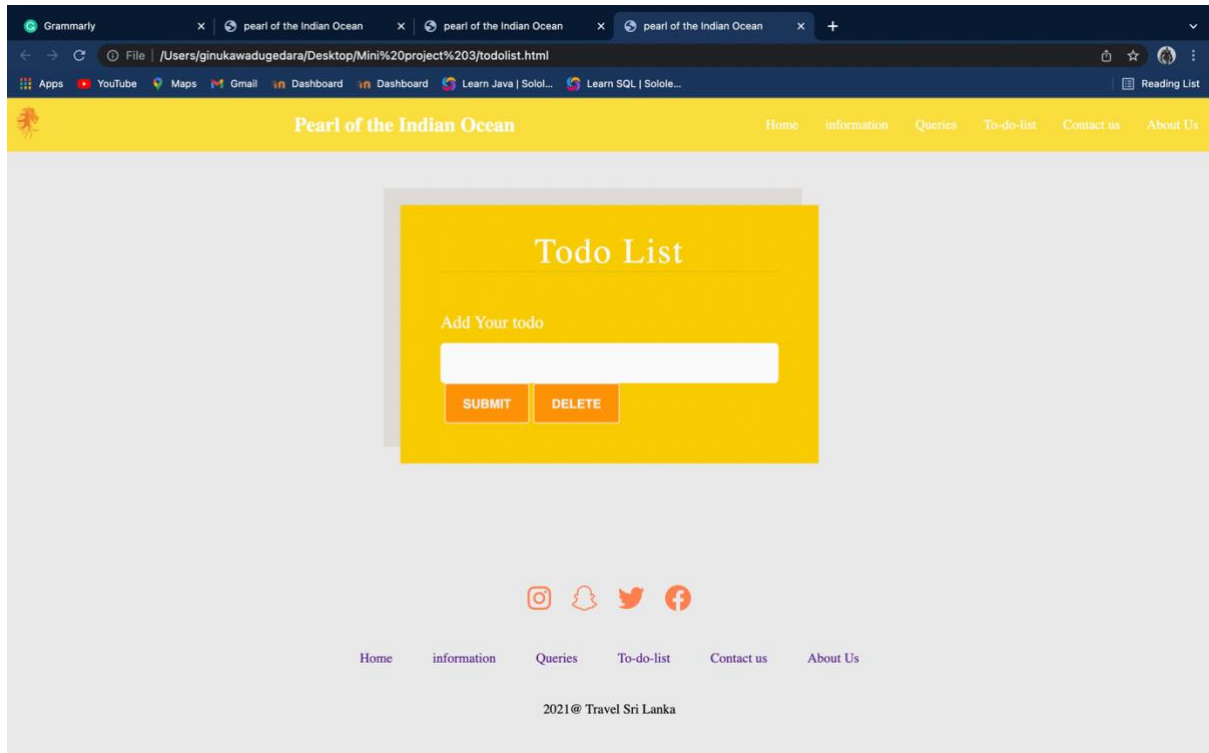

Information page

To do list

In the to-do list section, the visitor can enter things and places to visit and do while traveling to Sri Lanka and there is also an option to delete the entered items.

Conclusion

This website was prepared to help and inform potential travelers and tourists about Sri Lanka from this website tourists can create a to-do list get contact information of different branches also can submit any queries about travel to Sri Lanka This website is very user-friendly which was created HTML, CSS, java script to assist traveler we have also included location maps using google map further all the interfaces Home, Information, queries, contact us, About us, to-do list are linked to help the user for a better navigate the website. We hope this website will be helpful to promote tourism in Sri Lanka and help the potential tourist to find information and guidelines when traveling to Sri Lanka

End

